EUTF REMINDERS

Are you Medicare eligible and covered under an EUTF retiree health plan? The Hawaii Revised Statutes 87A-23(4) requires that State and County retirees and their eligible dependents who are enrolled in EUTF retiree medical and/or prescription drug benefits plans, enroll in Medicare Part B when they become eligible.

All retirees (and spouses/partners) enrolled in Medicare Part B should submit a copy of your letter from the Social Security Administration (SSA) or copy of your invoice showing your monthly Medicare Part B premium for 2019. EUTF will reimburse the amount stated on your letter (less any penalties). If EUTF does not receive a copy of your SSA letter showing your higher income-related monthly adjusted premium each year, EUTF will automatically reset your Medicare Part B premium reimbursement to the Medicare standard amount every January 1st. Please note that EUTF will not reimburse for any late enrollment penalties. Please mail a copy of the SSA letter or invoice to: EUTF, 201 Merchant Street, Suite 1700 Honolulu, Hawaii 96813 or fax a copy to (808) 586-2121.

WALKER WRITES ...

AN INSPIRING STORY, AN INSPIRING PERSON,
KAUAI HGEA RETIREE ASAKO IWAMOTO

Asako Iwamoto

Faced with obstacles, Asako persevered and completed her Masters' Degree in Social work in two years. It was 1959, Asako was married with two children, Lynne (4) and Kyle (2), and was living on Kauai when she applied for a stipend from her employer, the State Department of Public Welfare to pursue a Master's Degree. When Asako was interviewed by the School of Social Work Admission Committee, she was considered high risk with odds of dropping out of the program so was almost rejected.

Asako has always gratefully acknowledged her success to the sacrifices made by her husband John, her children, her siblings, and will always be profoundly thankful for their support. Her two sisters who were attending the University of Hawaii at Manoa, and a brother who worked at Pearl Harbor were very helpful in meeting some of the needs of the children.

As you can imagine, her first month of the first semester was the most difficult for that's when she remembers deliberating, "I want to quit," but her supportive husband said no. Asako reflects, "Going to school was no problem," but as a mother, she felt a deep maternal concern for her two kids because they had difficulty coping and being separated from each other. Kyle was with Asako in Honolulu and Lynne was with dad on Kauai so being separated and having to adjust to strange living arrangements upset the children.

Second semester was less stressful, so says Asako, as Lynne and Kyle lived with her in Honolulu. Lynne was in Kindergarten and Kyle spent his days with sitters while John visited on weekends. Asako's sisters and brother were very helpful in picking up the children for school activities and taking them out to enjoy the Ala Moana Shopping Center while mother Asako went to school and spent whatever time was available to study.

What motivated Asako to return to school after having earned a Bachelor's Degree? Asako wanted to work with clients and child welfare cases, individuals with handicaps, and work on cases that would require a Master's Degree. "I wasn't satisfied aiding clients with their welfare check approvals and doing clerical work."

Asako can look back at those hard times when everyone sacrificed, when finances were tight, when the children needed mother's time and love, and when husband required her attention. Thanks to everyone she survived. She says she had the "best Job ever" doing the work she earned as a result of her Masters' Degree, and that she was able to manage the struggles because, "I was younger then."

Lynne was four during Asako's term at UH but she remembers being in kindergarten in Honolulu and giving her teacher orchids from Kauai, going to Ala Moana, eating at popular Likelike Drive Inn and getting $1 bills from grandma for ice cream, a real treat. "And mom was smart and organized." Ah, the lovely and positive memories of childhood.

Congratulations to Asako for her accomplishment. You are an inspiration for all. Your husband must be very proud of you even though he tries to hide his feelings behind his stoic mask.

FROM YOUR ADMINISTRATOR ...

URGENT, PEOPLE campaign message.

Most of you recently received in the mail an URGENT message from AFSCME Retiree Director Ann Widger to sign up for the PEOPLE program. I know this is not the first time you heard about the PEOPLE program nor is it the first time you have received mail asking for your support.

As you have read in this newsletter and heard at many general membership and outreach meetings, the PEOPLE program is our unions' way of trying to fight the battles of right wing groups that today threaten our retirement security, programs like Medicare and Medicaid and Social Security. Special interest groups like the Koch Brothers and corporate billionaires are funneling millions of dollars into organizations like the Grassroots Foundation right here in Hawaii that seek to undermine us. They want to rob our pension funds to give tax breaks to the wealthy and engage in bogus PR campaigns that are misleading and untruthful. But what they do not think about is that the power of many people, especially retirees, united together is stronger than their millions. Please join your board of directors and HGEA staff, all MVP PEOPLE members and sign up today. Please contact me or any HGEA office for information or to begin your monthly deduction. You will receive a nice AFSCME jacket as an MVP PEOPLE member.

As we celebrate the year's end, let us remember those retiree friends, family and co-workers that have past. Let us celebrate that we were fortunate to have them in our lives, even if just for a short time, that we are better people today for knowing them.

A special thank you to our State Board Directors and all the Chapter Board Officers and Directors who without their work and commitment to the HGEA, and especially to the retiree section, we could not have the successful programs that members enjoy. I would like to personally thank President Ruth Walker who continues to enlighten us with the stories she shares in her Walker Writes column, but also for her dedication to the HGEA and our retiree members. Her wisdom and friendship I truly appreciate.

From Executive Director Randy Perreira, your retiree section Tammy Tanouye and myself, along with our HGEA 'ohana, we wish you Mele Kalikimaka and a Happy, Happy New Year. Looking forward to the Year of the Pig, 2019!
